

The Great Dickens Christmas Fair & Holiday Lights Cable Car Tour November 28-30, 2014

There is no better way to kick off this Christmas Season than to feel the joyful spirit of being in the city during the holidays. Have the December darkness lit up with traditional carols, medieval music and folk dancing through storytelling and acting.

Our first day of travel takes us south down Highway 101, a very scenic drive through Redwood Country. Our lunch stop will be in Ukiah, the largest city in Mendocino County. Applesbee's restaurant in Ukiah has provided us with group space with reasonable pricing. After a tasty meal, we continue the journey south across Golden Gate Bridge with wonderful views of San Francisco Bay Area. Our final stop of the day will be at the historic Chancellor Hotel. The boutique hotel is located on Union Square, in the heart of San Francisco, on the Powell Street Cable Car line. They offer a complimentary pillow menu offering 12 different pillows to choose from for your added comfort. The Great Dickens Christmas Fair is a one-of-a-kind holiday adventure into Victorian London-an elaborate party with hundreds of costumed players performing and interacting with patrons in over 120,000 square feet of theatrically-lit-music halls, pubs, dance floors and Christmas Shops. It's a twilight evening in Charles Dickens' London Town- a city of winding lanes filled with colorful characters from both literature and history. Enticing aromas of roasted chestnuts and hearty foods fill the air. Cries of street vendors hawking their wares ring out above the bustling crowd. Dozens of lamp lit shops are filled to overflowing with Christmas gifts. The Dickens Christmas Fair is a treasured Bay Area Tradition since 1970. After a day spent with splendid delights we find our way into the evening time and are once again off on an adventure of a different type. Escorted on a private Cable Car we will see the City's landmarks and destinations like Union Square and Ghirardelli Square that have lit up twinkling holiday scenes and Christmas Trees.
